MEDIA RELEASE

February 18, 2021

For Immediate Release

City of Jacksonville Winter Weather Update

City of Jacksonville non-essential offices remain closed until Monday, (Feb. 22, 2021) and Municipal Court that was scheduled for Friday, (Feb. 19, 2021) has been cancelled.

Fire, Police and other essential staff are working 24/7 to ensure all safety needs of our citizens are being met.

ROADS

Non-essential travel on roadways is still highly discouraged as roads are still icy and dangerous to drive on at this time.

WATER

The City of Jacksonville water system is still up and operational and keeping up with demand. The City's AMI Water System is continuing to assist staff by locating leaks in homes and businesses in our town. Residents and business owners may receive a call from City Staff if a leak is detected on their property.

If any citizen suspects a water leak in their home/business or on any city street, they are being asked to contact 903-589-3510 and authorize for the water to be turned off remotely.

Updates will be posted on our City Facebook page as well as on our website at www.jacksonvilletx.org.
